Shred Day Success!

This year PFCU enjoyed hosting the 2019 Shred Days in the towns of Des Plaines, Barrington and Morton Grove. All of the Shred Days were successful and fun days for everyone who attended. We look forward to adding the new Evanston location into the rotation for 2020 and a total of four shred days!

Coming Soon: PFCU Evanston!

PFCU will be opening its newest location this Fall in Evanston.

We are now preparing to open our Evanston office this fall at 2522 Green Bay Road. Send us your email to creditunion@mypfcu.org to receive the Evanston opening announcement and other PFCU news.

Are you drowning in paper?

PFCU is going digital!

We are going GREEN in 2020 with our PFCU Quarterly Member Newsletter.

Going Green Helps Benefit Everyone!

Disasters happen. Are you prepared? By securely storing your most vital items in your online safe deposit box at Virtual StrongBox, you will always be ready for anything that comes your way.

Virtual StrongBox is a great way to protect and store your important documents, like PFCU receipts, loan documents and keep them at your fingertips. Store wills, photos, birth certificates, passports and more. Securely share documents online, with an accountant, family member or anyone with an email address. You can only access your secure online storage by logging into online banking from any desktop computer.

On October 14th, credit unions across Illinois are joining forces on CU Kind Day to spread kindness and credit union awareness while giving back to the communities we serve.

PFCU will be participating by donating time at Feed My Starving Children (FMSC) in Schaumburg.

FMSC was founded in 1987 and is a non-profit that provides nutritionally-complete meals specifically formulated for malnourished children.
